Commissioning Conversations

Commissioning for outcomes

Yuma Community Partners,

In this mini-edition of Commissioning Conversations: Have your say...

- on applying the ACT Commissioning for Outcomes model, with the 2023 Commissioning survey.
- on a draft blueprint for the NGO mental health sector, through the YourSay survey.

Have your say on Commissioning for Outcomes

Have you been working in health, justice or community services to ensure Canberrans get the right support, where and when they need it?

We want to hear from you.

We want to hear about your experiences, what works, what is challenging and how you can be supported to design and deliver services when applying the ACT Government Commissioning for Outcomes model.

Take the 10-minute survey anonymously by 16 June 2023.

Your voice and experience are important to us if you have applied commissioning to:

- help identify community needs, design services, and invest those services.
- work with the non-government sector
- to design services that will/are/can make a difference to the lives of Canberrans.

Sharing your experiences will help improve how we all use commissioning to reform the ACT human service system by 2030 and in turn, benefit the wellbeing of Canberrans.

Commissioning for Outcomes 2023 Survey

Have your say on a draft blueprint for the NGO Mental Health Sector in the ACT

The mental health subsector commissioning team are seeking your views on a draft blueprint for the NGO mental health sector.

Based on this feedback and feedback from other consultation activities, the ACT Government will fund NGOs to deliver community based mental health services.

Have your say by June 16, by reviewing the blueprint and then completing an online survey via YourSay, or sending the team an email at mentalhealthcommissioning@act.gov.au.

Visit the mental health commissioning website for more details on other consultation activities, including workshops.
